

Reference Object “BASF House in Nottingham/UK” Insulating concrete forms (ICF) made of Neopor®

- Part of the “Creative Energy Homes” flagship project for energy-efficient homes of the future
- Set up on the campus of the University of Nottingham
- Project includes 6 houses
- Different degrees of innovation and flexibility
- Enable various aspects of modern construction methods
- Aim:
 - Ideas for sustainable construction
 - New methods of providing both affordable and ecologically sustainable houses

